

The New Legislative Framework: The New Directives

Don't forget that the new non-automatic weighing instruments (NAWI) and the new measuring instruments (MI) Directive come into effect on the 20th April 2016, just a few weeks away these directives will implement some major changes to the way in which we work, the documents we supply and the markings that must go on the instruments. There are now four categories of economic operator outlined and each type will have new and clearer obligations depending upon their position in the supply chain. The four categories are manufacturer, importer, authorised representative and distributor.... Read More
