

Blue Guide 2016 – New Version Out

The European Commission has published at the 5. April 2016 a new version of the Blue Guide. This version replaces the Blue Guide version 2014. The target of the Blue Guide is to ensure the broadest possible common understanding on implementation of the New Legislative Framework (NLF) for the marketing of products and the corresponding legal documents such as decisions, regulations and directives.

Among several detailed improvements, following topics relevant for manufacturers are treated in more details respectively are added and should be taken care about: Read More

Experience with the NLF

The 20th of April has passed, and the time to implement has passed, and the new NAWI and MI Directive are now applicable. While some countries have already published their version, and the notified bodies have been listed on the NANDO-Website, the majority of the CECIP member states are not listed yet.

A special case is certainly the UK... Read more
